

Think about what is important to you

You can have several goals

Share decisions about care and treatment choices

Set goals for your care

It helps your healthcare team support you

Goals can change along the way

Track progress towards your goals

Know your healthcare team

Keep a record of your goals

